TimberTrends

The Luxury Vinyl Plank... "Reimagined"

When creating the ultimate style and ambience in your home is important to you, then selecting a high quality floorcovering is where you should begin.

TimberTrends not only provides superior underfoot comfort and durability in an extra heavy-duty 5mm thick vinyl tile, it is on trend in a Large Format Plank. With an expansive range showcasing 14 exquisite timber species, finding new inspiration for your home is made easy. From the relaxing light hues of 'Mountain Ash' to the sunburnt accents of 'Spotted Gum', there's a timber species decor to suit your styling needs.

Purchasing TimberTrends for your home will be the first and best decorating decision you will ever make.

Our Luxury vinyl planks are water-proof with a pre-finished highly resistant protective coating, making them super low maintenance and suitable for every room of your home. The 'Floor Score' rated TimberTrends LVT range is completed in a modern 'Matte finish' and category leading premium 0.55mm wear-layer. So with all that protection, your new floors will be looking fresh and vibrant for years to come.

In impressive 1500mm length planks and wide-width format, TimberTrends has been designed and engineered using the latest European technology. With over 25 years of experience and quality control behind the brand, we have developed this range with the highest quality features: including a new reinforced multi-layer core achieving optimal plank stability - perfect for the harshness of the Australian climate.

We are all more aware today of the air we breathe, so you'll want to be confident in the choice of textiles you introduce into your home

That's why we've considered the whole family's wellbeing in developing TimberTrends so you can be assured everyone will breathe easy. Being 'Phthalates Free' and using only virgin raw-materials, TimberTrends is a market leading ultra-low emissions LVT that you can have confidence in. And finally, you'll have peace of mind knowing that you have invested in an environmentally-friendly recyclable floorcovering that will add style and value to your home, now and into the future.
