

COLOUR DISCLAIMER

Due to the many variations in monitors and browsers, the colour of our products may appear different on different monitors and browsers. Computer monitors are not all calibrated equally and colour reproduction on the Internet is not always accurate. Since it is not possible to guarantee our product colours will look the same on all computers, we do not guarantee that what you see accurately portrays the colour of the actual carpet. We have made every effort to display as accurately as possible the colours and images of the products we make and that appear on our website but cannot guarantee that what you see is a true representation. If it is important that the colour be a match, then, it is highly recommended that you view the carpet sample, before placing an order.

Note: Just because certain ranges have the same colour name that does not mean they are the same exact colour. Also, don't mistake the colour name to be what you may think that colour should be. Example, just because a colour may have the name Slate, it does not mean it will necessarily look like what most people would consider being a Slate colour. Please do not order carpet using colour names as your guide, always view the sample, before placing an order.
